Hearing

Nature of Hearing and Its Disorders

Effects of Noise and Issues in Hearing Conservation

Maximum output intensity of the Audiokinetron. Rankovic, C. M., Rabinowitz, W. M., & Lof, G. L. May 1996, 68–72.

Intervention

Habilitation, Rehabilitation, and Education

Real-time spectrographic displays in vowel production training with children who have profound hearing loss. Ertmer, D. J., Stark, R. E., & Karlan, G. R. November 1996, 4–16.

Language

Nature of Normal Language

Language Development

The CHILDES system. MacWhinney, B. February 1996, 5–14.
Children with slow expressive language development: What is the forecast for school achievement? Nippold, M. A., & Schwarz, I. E. May 1996, 22–25.
Clinical implications of the natural history of slow expressive language development. Paul, R. May 1996, 5–21.
Response to "Children with slow expressive language development: What is the forecast for school achievement?". Paul, R. May 1996, 26–28.
Slow expressive language development: A call for more data. Nippold, M. A., & Schwarz, I. E. May 1996, 29–30.
To treat or not to treat. Flipsen, P., Jr. November 1996, 56–57.

Language Use in Adults

The contribution of discourse markers to communicative competence in aphasia. Simmons-Mackie, N. N., & Damico, J. S. February 1996, 37–43.

Reading

Effects of phonological decoding training on children's word recognition of CVC, CV, and VC structures. Rivers, K. O., Lombardino, L. J., & Thompson, C. K. February 1996, 67–78.

Written Language

Effects of phonological decoding training on children's word recognition of CVC, CV, and VC structures. Rivers, K. O., Lombardino, L. J., & Thompson, C. K. February 1996, 67–78.

Language Disorders

Aphasia and Other Adult Language Disorders

The contribution of discourse markers to communicative competence in aphasia. Simmons-Mackie, N. N., & Damico, J. S. February 1996, 37–43.
Discussing advance directives under the Patient Self-Determination Act: A unique opportunity for speech-language pathologists to help persons with aphasia. Tippett, D. C., & Sugarman, J. May 1996, 31–34.

The relationship between objective measures and listeners' judgments of the communicative informativeness of the connected discourse of adults with aphasia. Doyle, P. J., Tsironas, D., Goda, A. J., & Kalinyak, M. August 1996, 53–60.

Language Disorders in Children

Children with slow expressive language development: What is the forecast for school achievement? Nippold, M. A., & Schwarz, I. E. May 1996, 22–25.
Clinical implications of the natural history of slow expressive language development. Paul, R. May 1996, 5–21.
Effects of pictures versus orally presented stories on story retellings by children with language impairment. Schneider, P. February 1996, 86–96.
Eliciting verbs from children with specific language impairment. Loeb, D. F., Pye, C., Redmond, S., & Richardson, L. Z. November 1996, 17–30.
Maximum output intensity of the Audiokinetron. Rankovic, C. M., Rabinowitz, W. M., & Lof, G. L. May 1996, 68–72.
Readiness and patterns of growth in children with SELI. Long, S. H., & Olswang, L. B. February 1996, 79–85.
Response to "Children with slow expressive language development: What is the forecast for school achievement?". Paul, R. May 1996, 26–28.
Slow expressive language development: A call for more data. Nippold, M. A., & Schwarz, I. E. May 1996, 29–30.

Learning Disabilities

Maximum output intensity of the Audiokinetron. Rankovic, C. M., Rabinowitz, W. M., & Lof, G. L. May 1996, 68–72.

Assessment and Intervention

Assessment

Effects of pictures versus orally presented stories on story retellings by children with language impairment. Schneider, P. February 1996, 86–96.
Eliciting verbs from children with specific language impairment. Loeb, D. F., Pye, C., Redmond, S., & Richardson, L. Z. November 1996, 17–30.
The relationship between objective measures and listeners' judgments of the communicative informativeness of the connected discourse of adults with aphasia. Doyle, P. J., Tsironas, D., Goda, A. J., & Kalinyak, M. August 1996, 53–60.
Why Johnny (or Joanne) can't parse. Long, S. H. May 1996, 35–42.

Speech

Nature of Normal Speech

Perception of Speech

Hearing and believing: Some limits to the auditory-perceptual assessment of speech and voice disorders. Kent, R. D. August 1996, 7–23.
The quality of digitized and synthesized speech: What clinicians should know. Venkatagiri, H. S. November 1996, 31–42.

Speech and Voice Disorders

Articulation and Resonance Disorders

Effects of intraoral prostheses on speech in oropharyngeal cancer patients. Colangelo, L. A., Pauloski, B. R., Logemann, J. A., Stein, D. W., Beery, Q. C., Heiser, M. A., & Cardinale, S. November 1996, 43–55.
Hearing and believing: Some limits to the auditory-perceptual assessment of speech and voice disorders. Kent, R. D. August 1996, 7–23.
Real-time spectrographic displays in vowel production training with children who have profound hearing loss. Ertmer, D. J., Stark, R. E., & Karlan, G. R. November 1996, 4–16.

Physiologically Based Speech Disorders

A clinical trial of an operant treatment for school-age children who stutter. Lincoln, M., Onslow, M., Lewis, C., & Wilson, L. May 1996, 73–85.
Comprehensibility of dysarthric speech: Implications for assessment and treatment planning. Yorkston, K. M., Strand, E. A., & Kennedy, M. R. T. February 1996, 55–66.
Dysphonia following nonsurgical management of advanced laryngeal carcinoma. Orlikoff, R. F., & Kraus, D. H. August 1996, 47–52.
Hearing and believing: Some limits to the auditory-perceptual assessment of speech and voice disorders. Kent, R. D. August 1996, 7–23.
Speech production and speech with a phrenic nerve pacer. Hoit, J. D., & Shea, S. A. May 1996, 53–60.

Stuttering and Other Fluency Disturbances

Hearing and believing: Some limits to the auditory-perceptual assessment of speech and voice disorders. Kent, R. D. August 1996, 7–23.
Perceptions of stutterers and nonstutterers during speaking and nonspeaking situations. Kalinowski, J., Stuart, A., & Armson, J. May 1996, 61–67.

Voice and Other Laryngeal Disorders

An assessment of pitch-matching abilities among speech-language pathology graduate students. Weiner, J. B., Lee, L., Cataland, J., & Stemple, J. C. May 1996, 91–95.
Dysphonia following nonsurgical management of advanced laryngeal carcinoma. Orlikoff, R. F., & Kraus, D. H. August 1996, 47–52.
Hearing and believing: Some limits to the auditory-perceptual assessment of speech and voice disorders. Kent, R. D. August 1996, 7–23.
Increased tracheostoma valve seal duration in patients with recessed or irregular stomas using a modified application method. Canady, C. J., & Martinez, J. A. February 1996, 31–36.
Stress, anxiety, somatic complaints, and voice use in women with vocal nodules: Preliminary findings. Goldman, S. L., Hargrave, J., Hillman, R. E., Holmberg, E., & Gress, C. February 1996, 44–54.
Voice response to injection of succinylcholine in the thyroarytenoid muscle of normal subjects. Rainey, C. L., Zealear, D. L., Courey, M., & Stone, R. E., Jr. May 1996, 43–52.

Dysphagia

Effect of a tongue-holding maneuver on posterior pharyngeal wall movement during deglutition. Fujiu, M., & Logemann, J. A. February 1996, 23–30.

Effect of intraoral prostheses on swallowing function in postsurgical oral and oropharyngeal cancer patients. Pauloski, B. R., Logemann, J. A., Colangelo, L. A., Stein, D., Beery, Q., Heiser, M. A., & Cardinale, S. August 1996, 31–46.

Ethical decision-making in dysphagia management. Sharp, H. M., & Genesen, L. B. February 1996, 15–22.

Assessment and Intervention

Assessment

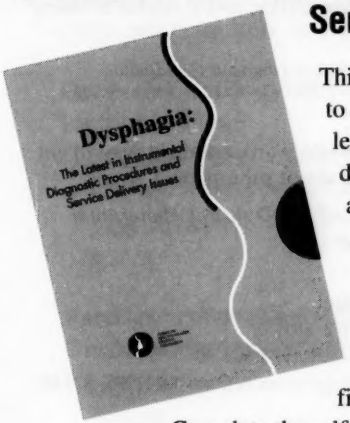
Dysphagia: The Latest in Instrumental Diagnostic Procedures and Service Delivery Issues



This open-captioned videotape, audiotape, and manual will allow you to relive the 1995 TeleSeminar featuring Jeri Logemann. You'll learn to apply various instrumental assessment techniques in dysphagia, review the advantages and disadvantages of newer alternatives for instrumental assessment, and develop protocols for assessment of swallowing function. Also learn to utilize bedside clinical assessment, define possible risks and ethical responsibilities, and quantify results and treatment effects. Then, visually explore the most commonly used assessment techniques including videofluoroscopy (MBS), ultrasonography, fiberoptic endoscopy, electromyography (EMG), and manometry. Complete the self-study exam and earn 0.3 CEUs. (1995)
